Paynter Announces Withdrawal.

Senator Thomas H. Paynter issued a card Saturday night formally withdrawing from the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator. This action on his part created the greatest surprise, as Senator Paynter only a few days ago put up the $2,000 entrance fee in the primary and it was believed by many that he had an equal chance to defeat Congressman Ollie James for the nomination.

In his card he stated that owing to illness in his family he was prevented from making a canvass which lessened his chances of election and which reason he gave for his withdrawal.

Hill in Paris.

As the election draws near the candidates, before the Democratic primary, are bestirring themselves. Judge B. F. Hill, of Henry county, candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture, was in town Monday hustling for votes. Judge Hill has peculiar claims on Bourbon county from the fact that he graduated from the K. W. C. when it was located at Millersburg, has many schoolmates in this county, has made several Democratic speeches here, has always supported Bourbon men for office when he has had an opportunity and now asks that all remember and help him next Saturday.

Pure Water for Paris.

Saturday night at 8 o'clock Superintendent Newton Mitchell, of the Paris Water Co., with a large force of men began the work of cleaning out the standpipes and by four o'clock Sunday morning the immense undertaking was completed. Upon suggestion of Health Officer Keller and Mayor Hinton to Mr. Mitchell it was immediately arranged to have the water supply of the city cut off for short time and the patrons were shortly afterwards supplied with a direct pressure, while the workmen were engaged in removing the accumulations at the bottom of the immense steel structure. The thorough cleaning of the receptacle for the city water supply insures the purest water and Mr. Mitchell is to be complimented upon the quick action taken in the matter and the service given his patrons.

A dispatch from Frankfort says: "June is the month when many automobile licenses expire and so far the Secretary of State has collected about $6,500 for licenses for the ensuing year. A fine of $50 is the penalty for running an automobile without a license and the auditor's agents are keeping close tab on the dates when licenses expire for this reason owners of autos should renew their licenses promptly to avoid a fine."

Paris Office Designated as Depository.

The Postoffice Department at Washington, has notified Postmaster N. A. Moore, that the Postmaster General has designated the Paris postoffice as a postal savings depository, which is to be effective after July 15, 1911. The purpose of the system is to provide facilities for depositing savings at interest with the security of the United States Government for repayment. Any person ten years of age or over may open an account. No charge or fee is made for opening an account or for withdrawal of deposits. No account will be opened for a sum less than $1, nor will fractions of a dollar be accepted. Not more than $100 may be deposited in a calendar month, nor to exceed a total balance of $500 may be held. Withdrawals may be made at any time. Depositors may exchange deposits for Postal-Saving bonds, if desired, and continue deposits as in the beginning.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES

The Lexington Leader says: "Wheat threshed and delivered June 22 is an unusual occurrence for the Blue Grass, but some of the new crop has been delivered to Byrns & Pettigrew dealers here, and is of good quality. The slight rise in the price of wheat on the Chicago grain market on account of Western droughts has not affected the price here, which is about 76 or 78 cents. The acreage of wheat in the Blue Grass is about an average area this year, while the yield and quality promise to be above the average. The wheat is plump and well filled, and most of it, so far, is weighing better than usual."

Allie Jones, of North Middletown, is busily engaged in putting the finishing touches to a strain of young Bourbon Kins that will be exhibited at the fairs in Central Kentucky. The youngsters are showing up in fine form and are looked to give some exhibitors a lively tussle in the show ring. Col. Young, a Bourbon King gelding, looks to be the class of the bunch and he is being worked up to fine trim for the fairs.

The Mercer county fair will be held at Harrodsburg August 8 to 11.

Great Heart, one of the grandest of Michigan's trotting sires, is dead at Coldwater, on the A. C. Fisk estate, where he has held court for many years. Foaled in 1888 at Paris, Ky., Great Heart was sold soon afterward to A. C. Fisk, of Coldwater, and after gaining a record of 2:12 1-2, became wonderfully successful in the stud.

Receipts of live stock on the Chicago market or the week ending June 17 were 48,600 cattle, 146,900 hogs and 94,800 sheep. The week's receipts compared with the previous week, in round numbers increased 2,400 cattle, 19,800 hogs and decreased 13,200 sheep. Compared with the corresponding period a year ago cattle decreased 9,700, hogs increased 26,300 and sheep decreased 9,500.

Whitewash Brush in Spain.
In Spain, where the ruins of Moorish towers are seen upon the crests of many hills as the express train crawls along at the rate of fifteen or twenty miles an hour, the evidences of surviving Moorish influence upon the people and customs of Andalusia make an interesting study. In the city of Ronda it is plain that the ideas of home building which the Arabs brought into the Iberian peninsula remain vital today. The whitewash brush is the great leveller of distinction between the rich and the poor in Spain. The exteriors of homes—great manor houses upon the haciendas, huts of mountaineers clinging to the sides of the almost perpendicular hills, handsome homes of rich merchants in the cities and humble tenements—are nearly all of plaster. A few of them are calcined in blue or brown or pink, but the majority are pure white. Ronda is a white city with a few patches of blue and pink and looks as if the whitewash brush had just been applied.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Got Right Down to Business.
James Russell Lowell when ambassador to England contributed to a London society and one day sent a deserving young American there to be assisted home. But the American was told that, though his case was evidently deserving, the society was just then short of funds.

When Lowell heard this he sat down and wrote the society a terse and vigorous letter.

"Dear sirs," he began, "for the last seven years I have contributed annually 25 guineas to your organization. I regret to learn you were unable to assist the young man I recommended to you a few days ago. If you will kindly return to me one of my contributions I will send him to America at my own expense, as I am convinced the case is a most deserving one."

The society did not return any of Mr. Lowell's cash, but it found means somehow to dispatch the young man home by the next boat.

She Could Threaten Too.
"Tickets," said the wiry little conductor as he confronted a 300 pound German woman.

"Ach! I have lost my ticket what I should come back by voice."

Conductor—I am sorry, madam, but you will be obliged to pay your fare again.

Woman—Nein, nein. I paid you this morning already. I will not.

Several times the conductor returned to reason with her, but each time was met with a more decided refusal than the last. Finally, losing patience, the conductor said:

"Madam, if you do not pay your fare at once I shall have to stop the train and put you off."

The woman, half rising and shaking her fist at him, said: "What! Put me off, you say? When you say dat some more by me I make you the train off and no stop it either."

A Waiter as a Tipper.
Two years ago a guest at a hotel in Frankfort-on-the-Main which has many American patrons became a prime favorite with the waiters in the dining room because of the lavish tips he gave to the man who served him, the boy who helped him on with his coat and the various other employees. Where old customers gave 50 pfennigs he would give a mark and more, besides extras in the way of cigars. In explanation he said one day that when he was at home in St. Louis he was a waiter, and, being far away, he wanted to test the extravagant tip system. "And how does it work?" he was asked.

"Fine. The boys think me a fine gentleman, and I think they are fine waiters."—New York Tribune.

A Sight Unseen.
"I guess I'm just an impressionable woman," she simpered. "I gave a beggar a quarter this afternoon."

"How did he work you for it?" he asked.

"He said, 'Won't this beautiful lady help me a bit?'"

"Well, you can't help giving something to these blind men."

And he can't figure it out yet why the girl is mad at him.—Boston Traveler.

A Literary Life Preserver.
Bookseller—This, sir, is an excellent book on swimming and a very useful one too.

Customer—Useful?

"Yes, sir. If ever you find yourself drowning you have only to turn to pages 88 and 89, and there you will find full instructions how to save yourself."—Loudon Sketch.

Equal to the Occasion.
"Doctor, I am feeling worse today." "Then stop taking the pills I prescribed for you."

"But I haven't taken any yet."

"Then take them."—Paris Sourire.

Doubled Pointed.
Bess—I'm at a loss to understand just what Mr. Blank meant when I told him my age was twenty-five. Tess—What did he say? Bess—That I didn't look it.—Lippincott's.

Tommy—Mamma had a lot of things sent home C. O. D. today. What does C. O. D. mean? Tommy's Pop—C. O. D., my son, means "Call on Dad."—Philadelphia Record.

"Atheists" Converted.

A number of Servian conscripts, on entering Belgrade barracks to serve their time, announced themselves as atheists so as to avoid attendance in church. The commander got them to clean out the yard and stables every Sunday morning while their comrades went to mass. The atheists have now asked to be instructed with a view to conversion to the national creed.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

The Secret of Youth

Do you ever wonder how you can remain young, or why other women older than you, look younger than you do? The secret can be put in a few words: "Preserve your health, and you will preserve your youth."

By "health" we mean not alone physical health, but nerve health, as, sometimes, magnificently strong-looking women are nervous wrecks.

But whether you are weak physically or nervously, you need a tonic, and the best tonic for you is Cardui. It builds strength for the physical and nervous systems. It helps put flesh on your bones and vitality into your nerves.

Take CARDUI.
The Woman's Tonic

"My mother," writes Mrs. Z. L. Adcock, of Smithville, Tenn., "is 44 years old and is passing through the change of life.

"She was irregular and bloated and suffered terribly. My father stepped over to the store and got her a bottle of Cardui, which she took according to directions and now she is up, able to do her housework and says she feels like a new woman." Try Cardui in your own case.

A Welcome Change

Smoke curling up from the farmhouse chimney as the men are coming in from the fields, gives a pretty suggestion of a good supper and a comfortable home. But it also means a hot, tired woman, working hard over a blazing fire.

A New Perfection keeps a kitchen many degrees cooler than any other range, yet it does all a coal or wood range can do. It saves time, labor and fuel. No wood to cut; no coal to carry; no ashes; no soot. With the New Perfection oven it is the best cooking device you can find anywhere.

Mrs. Wallingford Granted a Divorce.

As a climax to an estrangement which has existed since last March,
Mrs. Rosas Wallingford was Saturday in the Bourbon Circuit Court granted an absolute divorce from her husband,
Dr. J. S. Wallingford, a prominent physician of Paris, and by a decision of the court the wife is to have the custody of the three children, Nannette, aged 16; J. Stuart, Jr., aged 13;
Catherine Phillips, aged 4; Vivian, aged 3 years, and the father, who is to contribute to their maintenance, is to be allowed to see them at certain times as prescribed by the court.

The divorce proceedings are of a sensational nature, and are granted upon the grounds of incompatibility of temper, resulting from an alleged assault committed upon the wife by Dr.
Wallingford while in an uncontrollable passion.

Through his counsel Dr. Wallingford filed a petition in answer to that of his wife, and asked that the court grant him the custody of his children, which was overruled.

Pennant to be Unfurled Today.

The 1910 pennant won by the Bourbonites will be unfurled to the breezes at White Park this afternoon, and weather permitting a record breaking crowd is expected to witness the exercises incidental to the hoisting of the bunting for which the Paris team fought so gallantly last season.

The exercises will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. A. H. Keller, an ardent and loyal base ball fan, will make the principal speech of the day.

His address will be along the lines of compliment to the pennant winners of last year, to the fans who have liberally supported the home team and to the heads of the local club who have provided for the amusement of the public one of the best aggregations of ball tossers that ever participated in a minor league game.

The Paris High School Band has been engaged for the occasion, which will add to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Lexington will in all probability send a delegation over on a special train to witness the exercises and the contest between the Colts and Bourbonites.

As an evidence of the interest that is being manifested on the part of the merchants to make this a memorable event, several have signified their willingness to close their doors to allow their employees to attend the game.

All the clothing stores in the city will close from 2:30 until 5 o'clock with this in view and many more are expected to follow their example.

Unless all signs fail the pennant raising will be one of the greatest events in the history of base ball in Paris.

Circuit Court.

In Circuit Court Friday the entire day was occupied by the Standard Bank, of Maysville, vs. S. D. Frazier, on a note of $700 and was continued until Saturday morning, when the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff bank.

The damage suit of James Brooks colored, against Chief of Police J. C. Elgin for $2,000 resulted in a verdict for the defendant. A number of Commonwealth cases were continued until the November term of court.

Court adjourned Saturday at noon to be convened again Monday morning, Judge Fryer spending Saturday afternoon and Sunday at his home in Butler.

Yesterday morning Judge Fryer returned from Butler and convened court at ten o'clock. The case of Quincey Burgess against the executors of the will of John T. Burgess entered into.

Five witnesses had been examined when court convened yesterday afternoon.

The suit is an appeal from the county court to set aside the order of probation of the lower court.

By the terms of the will of the deceased an estate of an approximate value of $60,000 is disposed of, the bulk of the estate being bequeathed to churches and educational institutions.

Two Free Tickets to Niagara.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the contest which Manager Porter, of the Paris Grand inaugurated last night. To the person receiving the highest number of votes at the end of the contest will be presented two round trip tickets to Niagara Falls.

The voting commenced last night, and from the interest shown the contest will be a warm one. The ten persons receiving the highest number of votes last night will be the contestants.

There being two tickets given enables the winner to select a companion to make the trip with her. Several young ladies have joined forces and will work together during the contest.

To add interest to the contest Manager Porter will give any of the contestants one hundred admission tickets to the Grand. When these are sold and the money for same turned in it will entitle the seller to two hundred extra votes.

This is one of the most liberal offers ever made by the management of the Grand. Everyone knows or has read of the wonders of Niagara, and a trip to that place is a treat to be remembered for years, and doubly so when it can be made free. Go to the Grand every night and see that your friends go and cast your votes for your favorite in the race.

Saved His Wife's Life.

"My wife would have been in her grave today," writes O. H. Brown, of Muscle Shoals, Ala., "if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery. She was down in her bed, not able to get up without help. She had a severe bronchial trouble and a dreadful cough. I got her a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, and she soon began to mend, and was well in a short time." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the most reliable remedy on earth for desperate lung trouble, hemorrhages, lagriplets, asthma, hay fever, croup and whooping cough. 50c, $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

Negatively Speaking.

No man can doubt and at the same time still believe—doubt indulged too often becomes doubt realized and a skeptic. No man ever can when he has made up his mind he can't. No man can succeed, and think and talk and breathe an atmosphere of failure.

Can You Blame Him?

"What the trouble, Mr. Rockingham? You look worried." "I am," replied the aged millionaire, who had married a young woman. "A deep, dark suspicion has entered my mind. My wife has compelled me to quit wearing rubbers."

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madson, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50¢ at Oberdorfer's.

The Average Picnic.

If a man will take a hard-boiled egg, a thin ham sandwich, and a badly fractured glass of lean lemonade out on the lawn and sit down on a rustic bench—if there is one, he will come close to making a noise similar to the average picnic.

Electric Kissing.

There seems to be another new thing in electricity. The little manna girl in one of the recent plays says to her admirer: "Yes, you did kiss me! You kissed me seven times—for four times direct and three times alternating."

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulators free.

WASH THAT ITCH AWAY

It is said that there are certain springs in Europe that give relief and cure to Eczema and other skin diseases. If you knew that by washing in these waters you could be relieved from that awful itch, wouldn't you make every effort to take a trip to Europe at once? Would you not be willing to spend your last cent to find the cure?

But you need not leave home for these distant springs. Relief is right here in your own home town!

A simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients as compounded only in D. D. D. Prescription will bring instant relief to that terrible burning itch, and leave the skin as smooth and healthy as that of a child.

GOOD LIVER REMEDY FREE

When you suffer from any form of indigestion it is always well to take something for the liver, as usually the trouble lies there. If you are bilious, have a bloated feeling after eating, if you belch, if your skin is yellowish you may be sure it is liver trouble.

What you need is something to stir up the liver, to arouse the gastric juices so that they will aid in the digestion of your food. A very good remedy for this, and one highly recommended by those who have used it, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepisin, which you can obtain of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. But if you have any doubt about its merits, and would prefer to try it first, send your address to Dr. Caldwell and he will promptly send you a free sample bottle.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—it enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—the records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over your case with us.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleansed By a Simple Wash.

"I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars; but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that Eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in Eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of Eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25-cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy.

Money and Man.

When a man can make money just a little bit faster than he can manage to let go of it, and can hold onto the surplus so that another can never separate him from it even with a steel crowbar, then he is it—an old way you try to solve the problem of money and man.

London Club Etiquette.
The American duchess, followed by her motor, led Miss Cochon of Chicago out St. James street.

"Oh, there's the duke!" cried Miss Cochon of Chicago as they passed Brooks club, but the duchess said hurriedly:

"Don't look at him, my dear, or he will cut you. Don't you understand club etiquette?"

"No; not if it differs from other etiquette."

"Well," said the duchess, "it differs altogether. The club, you see, originated in London. The club has been defined as the weapon wherewith the savage keeps the white woman at a distance. In club etiquette women are ignored. As you pass White's or the Carlton, the Junior Carlton or Brooks you will see your best friends, top hat pushed back and hands folded on stick, glaring solemnly at you from this window or from that, but your best friends won't speak to you. It isn't club etiquette. And if you spoke to them it would be a worse faux pas than if you appeared at court under the influence of liquor."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Delicate Generosity.

One of the many stories of Grant which grip the hearts and minds of the people was once told by General Simon B. Buckner at a meeting of Confederate veterans.

"Grant and I were chums at West Point," began General Buckner. "I had befriended him at one time, and it can justly be said of him that he never forgot a kindness. After the Union victories at Henry and Donelson I met Grant on the boat at the surrender, and he followed me when I went to headquarters. He left the officers of his own army and followed me with that modest manner peculiar to him into the shadow and there tendered me his purse—pressed it into my hand without a word."

"It seemed to me," concluded General Buckner, "that in the marvelous modesty of his nature he was afraid the light would witness that act of generosity and sought to hide it from the world, almost from his own soul."

Music of "The Lost Chord."

The music of "The Lost Chord" was composed under most touching conditions. Arthur Sullivan was watching by the bed of his dying brother, Frederick. One night shortly before death the invalid sank into a peaceful slumber. Arthur, who attended his brother day and night, took the opportunity to read, and it happened that his eyes fell on Adelaide Anne Procter's poem, "The Lost Chord." The verses impressed him greatly, and music appropriate to them suggested itself to his mind. Taking a sheet of music paper, he began to write, and so absorbed was he in his task that he sat hour after hour working at it until the song was completed. Probably the acute emotional conditions under which the music was composed account largely for the power to touch the emotions which undoubtedly "The Lost Chord" possesses.—George Leon Varney in National Magazine.

A Go as You Please Railway.

The Quest-Etat railway is a standing joke in Paris on account of its slipshod ways. They tell there this story of an incident which happened when M. Briand was premier:

A Russian prince was in Brittany and wanted to come up to Paris. He telegraphed to his secretary: "Shall arrive Invalides tomorrow 8 a. m. Don't want accident to train. See Briand about it." The secretary called on the prime minister, who was most affable. "It is not the general custom on the Quest-Etat to avoid accidents," he said, "but I will ask the director to see what can be done." The express arrived safely without the smallest mishap, but six hours and a half late, during all which time the Russian prince's secretary had been waiting on the platform.

His Three Questions.

"I'll just bet you cigars for the crowd," said one of a party of prominent men to one of the number who was bragging of what he could do, "that you can't answer 'yes' to any three questions I ask you."

"Done," said the boasting one.

"Well, were you ever in jail?"

"Yes."

"Were you ever electrocuted?"

"Yes."

"Will you pay for the cigars if I lose?"—Curtain.—New York World.

Cause For Thanks.

Small Elmer, who had just received a severe scolding, said, "Am I really so bad, mamma?"

"Yes, Elmer," she replied, "you have been a very, very bad boy."

"Well," rejoined the youngster after a moment's reflection, "you ought to be thankful that I ain't twins."—Chicago News.

Beyond the Husband Stage.

"You say you're your wife's third husband?" said one man to another during a talk.

"No; I am her fourth husband," was the reply.

"Heavens, man," said the first man. "You are not a husband; you're a habit!"—Ladies' Home Journal.

Nerve.

Lady—Why do you give me this bit of paper? Tramp—Madam, I do not like to criticise your soup, but it is not like mother used to make. Allow me to give you her recipe.—Flegende Blätter.

Agreeable advice is rarely useful advice.—Massillon.

Auto Has Narrow Escape.

Dr. William Kenney, the popular Paris physician, had a very narrow escape a few nights ago, while out driving in his motor car, at the hands of an irate farmer, who was in the act of letting him have the contents of a double-barrel shotgun.

Dr. Kenney was returning to Paris and when on the pike leading from Shawhan to Kiseron and directly in front of the home of Squire Jake Keller when one of the tires of his machine blew out with a tremendous report, (you know Kenney never does anything by halves) arousing half the neighborhood, Squire Keller and his family included, and forcing him to bring his machine to an abrupt stop.

Thinking perhaps some tourist had fired upon his watch dog, which was making considerable noise in the yard, Squire Keller rolled out of bed grabbed his shotgun and made his way to the road where he challenged the owner of the disabled auto, demanding to know why he had fired upon his dog which was in the inclosure.

The situation was rather embarrassing for Dr. Kenney, who in the face of the gun and in almost total darkness hastily explained the cause of the accident, revealed his identity and appealed for aid. Squire Keller and Dr. Kenney being great friends, the former made profound apologies. Going to the house he procured lanterns and returning with the entire family to the scene of the accident rendered valuable assistance in repairing the damaged car.
